

CALIFORNIA COMMISSION ON TEACHER CREDENTIALING

1900 Capitol Avenue
Sacramento, California 95814-4213

Date: February 17, 2006

Number: 06-0004

To: All Individuals and Groups Interested in the Activities of the Commission on Teacher Credentialing

From: Dr. Sam W. Swofford, Executive Director

Subject: Minimum Passing Score for California Subject Examinations for Teachers: American Sign Language (CSET: ASL)

The California Subject Examinations for Teachers: American Sign Language (CSET: ASL) was first administered on November 5, 2005. At the February 1, 2006 Commission meeting, the Commission established 220 as the passing score for each of the three CSET: ASL subtests.

California Subject Examinations for Teachers: American Sign Language
Subtest (test code)	Domains	Minimum Passing Score
I (186)	Literary and Cultural Texts and Traditions Cultural Analysis and Comparisons	220
II (187)	General Linguistics Linguistics of the Target Language—American Sign Language (Language Structures; Contrastive Analysis; Sociolinguistics and Pragmatics)	220
III (188)	Linguistics of the Target Language—American Sign Language (Error Analysis) Language and Communication: Receptive Comprehension Language and Communication: Expressive Production	220

The National Evaluation Systems, Inc. (NES) will release the score reports for individuals who took the November 2005 test administration by February 27, 2006. The next CSET: ASL test administration is scheduled for May 20, 2006, and will be held in two test areas, one in northern California and the other in southern California. Please refer to the CSET Web site, www.cset.nesinc.com, for exam content and registration information.